

Folklore of the Hebrides Islands, Scotland

Folklore of the Hebrides Islands, Scotland

Greeks wrote of HYPOBOREA “beyond the north wind”. Romans of “Deep Sea Isles north of Alba”. The Norse talked of ‘Havbredey’ Hav (sea), Bred (edge), Ey (Island)

Gaelic Poem and Latin Chronicle

Folklore of the Hebrides Islands, Scotland

Kelpies and the Whirlpool at Corryvreckan
St Columba and the Loch Ness Monster

Folklore of the Hebrides Islands, Scotland

Gaelic Folksong about Fairies – Sithchean - lived under knolls
a 'folk-memory' of the Iron Age Picts

Mermaids - A Folksong and a Proverb

*Folklore of the Hebrides
Islands,
Scotland*

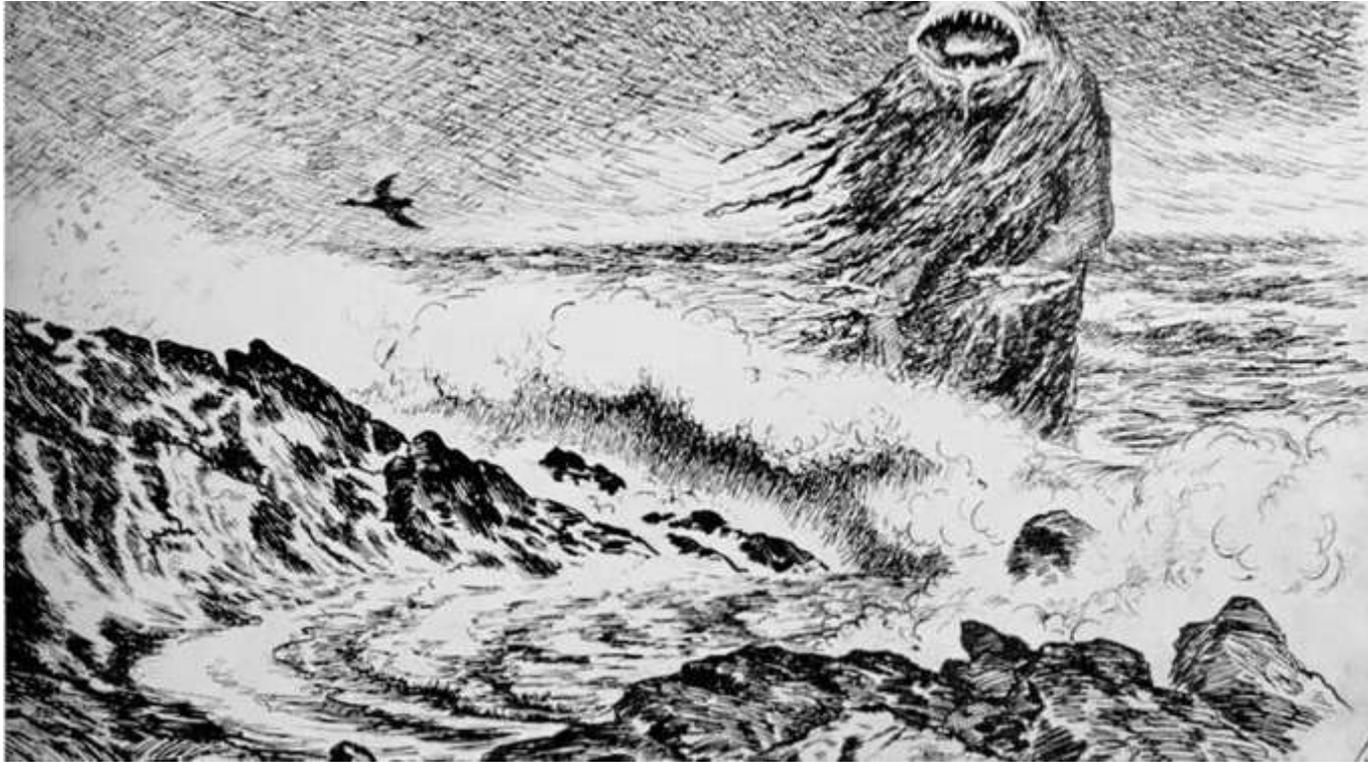

Folklore of the Hebrides Islands, Scotland

Augury Wells and Springs

Tales of the Shony or Sea-God

Folklore of the Hebrides Islands, Scotland

Folklore of the Hebrides
Islands,
Scotland

Thank You (English)

Tapadh Leibh - Ceud taing (Scottish Gaelic)

Tusen Takk (Nordic)